

Didn't we do this last year
or

The Raft Trip Anthem

by Dan & Tammy

(to the tune of Do you hear what I hear?) Said the GSP to the lovely Spouse

Didn't we do this last year?

Didn't we do this last year?

Same thing year after year

Didn't we do this last year?

Didn't we do this last year?

The New, the New, beckons from afar

Let us pack up and go there by car

Let us pack up and go there by car

Said the GSP to the mighty Ray

Didn't we camp here last year?

Didn't we camp here last year?

Always in the rain mighty Ray

Didn't we camp here last year?

Didn't we camp here last year?

A tent, a tent, wallows in the mud

All the Piglets are covered in crud

All the Piglets are covered in crud

Said the mighty Ed to the noble Don

Didn't we taste this last year?

Didn't we taste this last year?

Same thing year after year

Didn't we taste this last year?

Didn't we taste this last year?

An Ale, a bock, a porter and a stout

Have Bob come and pour some more out

Have Bob come and pour some more out

Said the guide to the rafting GSPs

Didn't we flip here last year?

Didn't we flip here last year?

Same place year after year

Didn't we flip here last year?

Didn't we flip here last year?

A wave, a wave, taller than the sky

well, today is a good day to die!

well, today is a good day to die!
