

This is the dawning of the age of ... PIGS??

While the rest of the world is celebrating Y2K, we're celebrating Y2D (deca). That's right the GSPs are 20 this year. No more teenagers! Time to grow up!

Who are we kidding???

Let's celebrate by meeting in Hico, West Virginia and Rafting the New River. It's not original but, hey, it's worked for 20 years.

How's 4th of July weekend for everyone?

Just fill out the enclosed form and we'll hold your place a Ray's new campground. REALLY! Ray moved the campground. We didn't get "asked" to leave this time.

So Come One! Come All! Eat, Drink, and be Merry in a state where (almost) no one knows who you are and the rest can be kept silent because YOU know what they did last summer.
