

SOOEEEEEE!

Lo! I bring tidings of great joy to the Beast of Bourbon and Animals of the Desert!

The long awaited 32nd Annual GSP Migration is upon us. Again we gather at Ray's Campground
We shall anoint our bodies with sunscreen.

The water will turn to beer.... Oh... well... just in case, bring beer.

This year is different, because times are changing.... Our piglets have aged, so we cannot eat our young anymore. So bring food and beer. And there will not be a piglet trip. Hard boaters shall gather their boats to the river themselves.

In place of the duckie trip, we may search for caves. Oh, wait... here's a couple:

<http://www.senecacaverns.com/rates.cfm>

AAA discount. Six hours for touring both, arrive by 10am in jeans and a jacket. (You animals can read right?)

LET ME KNOW IF YOU WANT TO GO TO THE CAVES. If we have more than 15, they prefer a heads up and offer a discount. There are 2 caves and several options, let me know your preferences and we will try to make most the beasts happy.

The current plan... please understand that I do not plan....

The herd will probably do mountain goat things like rock hop up the river, run like lemmings off cliffs at the swimming hole and, go to the lake like ducks and drink beer like fish, and take a hikes like deer. These times will be determined by the Zen of shepherding with the alpha males/females and the herd will follow.

Double F will probably light Rambo nightly, so bring food and beer.

There will be campfires nightly, so bring beer.

There will be skits... if you write them. So bring beer.

The schedule:

Sunday or Monday (1st or 2nd)... The migration to Ray's Campground begins.

You will get there when you get there. If you want to let me know when you think that might be, that would be great. We will have fun with or without you, but we prefer with you.

July 4th WINE and CHOCOLATE tasting and general merriment

July 5th CAVE TRIP perhaps.

6:30pm FAJITA NIGHT

GIN TASTING.... Bring your favorite gin. If you don't have one, ask your favorite gin runner which is her favorite and bring that.

July 6th Hard boaters adventure, perhaps

6:30pm PITCH IN DINNER

Skits

July 7th RAFT TRIP with Ace. 9am check-in.

Skits

July 8th The Shepherdess abandons the flock, you are on your own... try not to get lost or eaten by wolves, the migration may occur again next year.

Love to all. This will be a good year.
